Story

Our main character, Arthur, was traveling through the space when he crashed on an unknown planet. This planet is inhabited by hostile creatures. But he needs to collect some materials to repair his spaceship and being able to escape that planet.

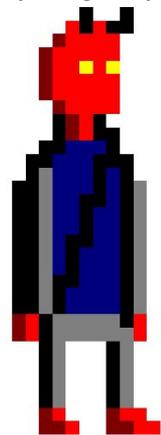

Will Arthur be able to pick all he needs and escape the planet before the unknown creatures kill him?

Characters

Arthur: a worker that was travelling through the spaced and crashed on an unknown planet.

Red creatures: they live in this planet and do not like extraterrestrial life forms, they will shoot everything they do not recognise.

How to load the game

Amstrad CPC disk: insert disk and type run"project

Amstrad CPC tape: insert tape, press CTRL + ENTER, press PLAY and press any key.

How to play

You will have to move Arthur through the maps in order to collect all the minerals around. You will have to kill or avoid the red creatures. To achieve this goal you will have 2 items. First of all, you will have a gun, which can only fire a shot at a time. Then you will have a shield, which consume your energy each time you use it. In order to recover your health and energy you can drink the soda that you will find in the boxes scattered around the maps.

The enemies will be patrolling some areas, use this in your advantage to hit them from behind. You also can climb the stairs to avoid them shooting you.
